First published in 1940, Current Biography continues to be a key source of biographical information of notable people representing a variety of fields including politics and government, arts and entertainment, journalism, sports, business people, literature, and the sciences... Each entry lists year born, occupation, entry about life and career, and suggested readings; a photograph is included with most of the entries... In addition to the obituary a cross-reference is provided to the year the individual was profiled in Current Biography. Current Biography Yearbook is a must have for libraries—it is a staple as a source for biographical information. Very highly recommended.
