H.W. Wilson Announces the Latest Issue of The Reference Shelf: Representative American Speeches, 2023-2024

In this annual issue of The Reference Shelf, we look at some of the best, most impactful and most uplifting speeches from 2023–2024. Ranging from politicians to political activists to celebrities, this volume of The Reference Shelf provides a unique record of American culture during the year as seen through the eyes of some of the nation’s most important public figures. With an eye toward encompassing a diversity of perspectives, speeches will help provide a glimpse of American thought and attitudes on the year’s most important stories.

This volume begins with a preface; a brief overview of what 2024 encompassed for many Americans and how many of the included speeches reflect what Americans cared about, ranging from foreign relations to economic insecurities. The preface also provides information on Joe Biden’s resignation from the 2024 election as well as historical context, outlining past presidents such as James K Polk, who did not seek reelection after their first term. Representative American Speeches, 2023-2024 includes speeches that fall into five topics:

- The Democratic Campaign
- The Republican Campaign
- U.S. Issues
- International Issues
- 2024 Commencement Speeches

About The Reference Shelf

Each 200-page volume provides comprehensive, balanced coverage of an issue of importance in modern society. Each volume contains 35-45 notable documents and articles (complete or abstracted) from highly respected periodicals and media outlets. In addition, the Preface introduces the reader to the topic and 5-6 chapters with the text provide readers with thoughtful guidance on how to approach a particular aspect of the topic. Each chapter’s introductory material provides guidance and guarantees success in using these carefully-selected materials. A bibliography, index and important websites enhance further research.
