

Contents

Preface ix

1

Verifying the Vote

Voter Registration and the Voter ID Debate 3

Voter ID: Where Have We Been, Where Are We Going? 9

Amanda Zoch, National Coalition of State Legislatures, October 4, 2021

80% of Americans Support Voter ID Rules—But Fewer Worried About
Fraud, Polls Find 14

Alison Durkee, Forbes, June 21, 2022

Voter ID Bill Clears Missouri Legislature Despite Fierce Criticism from Black Democrats 17

Rebecca Rivas, Missouri Independent, May 12, 2022

Hundreds of Mail-In Ballots Are Being Returned to Texas Voters
Because They Don't Comply with New Voting Law 21

Alexa Ura, The Texas Tribune, February 10, 2022

2

Access to the Franchise

The Debate over Felon Disenfranchisement 27

States Moving Fast After Congress Failed to Expand Felon Voting Rights 33

Zach Montellaro, Politico, February 2, 2022

Felon Voting Ban Is Racially Motivated and Unconstitutional,
NC Judges Rule 38

Will Doran, The News & Observer, March 29, 2022

Tackling Felony Disenfranchisement Before the Midterm Elections 41

Benjamin Barber, Facing South, June 8, 2022

Reeves Ignores Racist History of State's Felony Voting Ban with Vetoes 45

Bobby Harrison, Mississippi Today, May 1, 2022

Bernie Sanders Is Wrong: Felons Shouldn't Vote from Prison 48

John R. Lott Jr., National Review, April 11, 2019

There Are Good Reasons for Felons to Lose the Right to Vote 50

Hans A. von Spakovsky and Roger Clegg, The Heritage Foundation, April 10, 2018

Texas Court Orders That Illegal Voting Conviction Against Crystal Mason
Be Reviewed 52

Ashley Lopez, NPR, May 11, 2022

3

Electoral Crime in America

| | |
|--|----|
| The Persistence of Voter Fraud Claims | 57 |
| Poll: More Americans Are Concerned About Voting Access Than Fraud Prevention | 62 |
| Domenico Montanaro, NPR , July 2, 2021 | |
| The Battles Over Voting Rights, Preventing Fraud and Access to Ballots— 5 Essential Reads | 64 |
| Naomi Schalit, The Conversation , January 11, 2022 | |
| Trump’s Fraud Claims Died in Court, but the Myth of Stolen Elections Lives On | 67 |
| Jim Rutenberg, Nick Corasaniti, and Alan Feuer, The New York Times , December 26, 2020 | |
| Read the Never-Issued Trump Order That Would Have Seized Voting Machines | 72 |
| Betsy Woodruff Swan, Politico , January 21, 2022 | |

4

Voter Suppression

| | |
|--|-----|
| Political Manipulation of American Democracy | 79 |
| Supreme Court Blunts Voting Rights in Arizona— and Potentially Nationwide—in Controversial Ruling | 85 |
| Cornell W. Clayton and Michael Ritter, The Conversation , July 1, 2021 | |
| Voting and Elections Divide Republicans and Democrats Like Little Else: Here’s Why | 88 |
| Philip Ewing, NPR , June 12, 2020 | |
| If Georgia’s Election Law Was Supposed to Suppress the Vote, It Sure Did a Bad Job | 92 |
| Joe Lancaster, Reason , May 25, 2022 | |
| The Voter Suppression Lie | 94 |
| Ilya Shapiro, Cato Institute , April 22, 2021 | |
| The New Voting Restrictions Aren’t as Restrictive as Many Think | 101 |
| Sarah Isgur, Politico , April 6, 2022 | |

5

New Developments in the Voting Rights Debate

| | |
|--|-----|
| Voting Rights in 2022 and Beyond | 109 |
| Some States Are Making It Harder to Vote, Some Are Making It Easier— But It's Too Soon to Say if This Will Affect Turnout in 2022 | 114 |
| Nancy Martorano Miller, The Conversation , March 8, 2022 | |
| Election Worker Safety and Privacy | 117 |
| Sarah J. Eckman and Karen L. Shanton, Congressional Research Service , June 23, 2022 | |
| New York Is About to Let Noncitizens Vote: It Could Reshape Local Politics Forever | 121 |
| Erin Durkin, Politico , March 2, 2022 | |
| New York City's Noncitizen Voting Law Is Struck Down | 126 |
| Jeffery C. Mays, The New York Times , June 27, 2022 | |
| Only Citizens Deserve the Right to Vote, in Maine and Beyond | 129 |
| Jacob Posik, National Review , April 1, 2022 | |
| Bibliography | 131 |
| Websites | 135 |
| Index | 137 |