

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

Part I of Short Story Index, the Author, Title, and Subject Index, is arranged in dictionary form with all entries in one alphabet. The titles of short stories are italicized. Part II is a List of Collections indexed. The following directions apply to Part I:

Author Entry

The author entry gives the name of the author and title of the story. For stories found in collections it also gives the title of the collection.

Sample entry from a collection:

Acampora, Lauren

Aether.

Wonder Garden

The above example shows that the story by Lauren Acampora entitled Aether appeared in "Wonder Garden."

Title Entry

Title entries are used to identify the author whose name the story will be found. The order will be sorted on the first word of a title (not an article).

Sample entries:

Acts of Laziness. Jackson, Guy J.

Milo's Last Chance. Charyn, Jerome

Subject Entry

Stories found in collections are listed under subjects with which they deal in whole or in part. Subject entries are printed in capital letters, in boldface type. Consult with author entry for the title of the story collection.

Sample entry:

FIREFLIES

CHANG HUI-CHING. War Among the Insects.
